

Please take a stand to ban Sinclair Broadcasting from forcing its affiliates to air a smear against John Kerry. This is an example of the problems that happen when too few entities are allowed to own too much of our airways. One only has to look at Italy to see how media ownership consolidation can harm democracy. Please go back to the days when the FCC wisely limited media ownership. And prevent Sinclair from using its power for partisan purposes.